

exist

to live or survive, to be real

resist

to fight against something

twist

to bend or turn something around insist

to refuse to change your mind about something

artist

consist

to be made up of something

chemist

a person who prepares and sells medicines

cyclist

a person rides or travels by bicycle

florist

a person who sells or grows flowers

persist

to keep doing something for a long time

soloist

a person who performs a solo specialist

guitarist

scientist

linguist

a specialist in languages

tourist

someone who travels on vacation

journalist

a person who gets news and writes about it

therapist

a trained person who helps patients with psychological problem